

Dr. Syed Abdul Rehman Khan

Editor-in-Chief IGI Global Publisher, IJCEWM Journal
Associate Editor IGI Global, IJESGT Journal
Lead Guest Editor of Taylor & Francis, JA&WMA Journal
Guest Editor of Inderscience, IJEE
Sustainability Panel Head @ IBA University, Pakistan
Visiting Faculty Member of Bahria University
Visiting Faculty of BRASI Institute, USA
Senior Member of APCIS Supply Chain, USA
Advisor of Pakistan Supply Chain Association

Dr. Syed Abdul Rehman Khan is an expert of Supply Chain and Logistics Management. Dr. Khan achieved his CSCP—Certified Supply Chain Professional certificate from the U.S.A. and successfully completed his Ph.D. in China.

Since 2018, Dr. Khan has been affiliated with Tsinghua University as a postdoctoral researcher. He has more than nine years' core experience of supply chain and logistics at industry and academic levels. He has attended several international conferences and also has been invited as keynote speaker in different countries. He has published more than 60 scientific research papers in different well-renowned international peer-reviewed journals and conferences. Dr. Khan is the authored of 4 books related to the sustainability in supply chain and business operations. He is a regular contributor to conferences and workshops around the world. During the last 2 years, Dr. Khan has won 5 different national/provincial-level research projects. In addition, Dr. Khan has achieved scientific innovation awards three times consecutively by the Education Department of Shaanxi Provincial Government, China. Also, Dr. Khan holds memberships in the following well-renowned institutions and supply chain bodies/associations: APCIS-U.S.; Production and Operation Management Society, India; Council of Supply Chain Management of Professionals U.S.; Supply Chain Association of Pakistan; and Global Supply Chain Council China.